Note completion

- 1 Work in small groups. You are going to read a passage about Costa Rica. Before you read, look at the photos of Costa Rica on the right. What do they tell you about the country?

② Read the passage below quickly. Who are:

1 Mariano Rojas?

2 Saamah Abdallah?

The happiest country in the world

Children growing up in Costa Rica are surrounded by some of the most beautiful and diverse landscapes in the world. Preserving tropical rainforests isn't Costa Rica's only success, because the government also makes sure everyone has access to health-care and education. So when the New Economics Foundation released its second Happy Planet Index, Costa Rica came out number one. The index is a ranking of countries based on their impact on the environment and the health and happiness of their citizens.

According to Mariano Rojas, a Costa Rican economics professor, Costa Rica is a mid-income country where citizens have plenty of time for themselves and for their relationships with others. 'A mid-income level allows most citizens to satisfy their basic needs. The government makes sure that all Costa Ricans have access to education, health and nutrition services.' Costa Ricans, he believes, are not interested in status or spending money to show how successful they are.

Created in 2008, the Happy Planet Index examines happiness on a national level and ranks 143 countries according to three measurements: their citizens' happiness, how long they live (which reflects their health), and how much of the planet's resources each country consumes. According to researcher Saamah Abdallah, the Index also measures the outcomes that are most important, and those are happy, healthy lives for everyone.

adapted from Yes! Magazine

- 1 What are the notes about? Find which sentences in the passage deal with this.
- 2 Find words in the passage which mean the same as the words in italics.

The Happy Planet Index

Year started: 1

Number of countries it lists: 2

Measures each country's happiness according to:

- its effect on the 3 (i.e. the quantity of the Earth's 4 that it uses);
- the 5 of the population (i.e. how long people live);
- how happy its 6 are.

- 4 Now complete the notes. Choose ONE WORD OR A NUMBER from the passage for each gap.

Exam advice Note completion

- Read the title of the notes first and find the right place(s) in the passage.
- Carefully read the parts of the passage which deal with the key ideas in the questions – the answers may not come in passage order.

- 5 Work in small groups.

- 1 Which of these things do you think are important in making people happy, and which are not so important? Why?

- being healthy
- earning a lot of money
- having a good education
- having good relationships
- living in a beautiful place

- 2 What other things are important?

1 Work in pairs. Look at the photos and complete the captions by writing an adjective from the box below in each gap. If you need more than one adjective, put the more general one first.

busy	industrial	large	main	pretty
quiet	suburban	tall	tiny

Pronunciation

Sentence stress 1

We normally stress the main information in a sentence. When we answer a question, we usually stress the words which give the answer, or give new information.

Examiner: Can you tell me what you do, Hanan?
Do you work, or are you a student?

Hanan: Yes, I'm a student. I'm studying medicine because I want to be a doctor.

Examiner: And where do you come from?

Hanan: I come from Muttrah in Oman.

Examiner: Can you tell me what you do, Kwan?
Do you work, or are you a student?

Kwan: I'm a student. I'm studying economics at Chonju University at the moment.

Examiner: And where do you come from, Kwan?

Kwan: I come from a small village near Chonju in Korea.

- * Facts.
- * Habitual actions.
- * Things that don't/won't change.
- * Describing yourself.

S + don't/doesn't + verb + object ...

I + don't + like + tea.
She + doesn't + like + tea.

- * Never

Do/Does + S + verb + object?

Do + you/we/they/I + like + tea?
Does + he/she/it + like + tea?

BUT REMEMBER

 The verb 'to be' is different ***

I + am (Australian.)
He/she/it + is (clever.)
you/we/they + are (nice.)

HELPFUL HINTS

Present simple (I do)

Study this example situation:

Alex is a bus driver, but now he is in bed asleep.
He is not driving a bus. (He is asleep.)

but He drives a bus. (He is a bus driver.)

Drive(s)/work(s)/do(es) etc. is the present simple:

I/we/you/they	drive/work/do	etc.
he/she/it	drives/works/does	etc.

We use the present simple to talk about things in general. We use it to say that something happens all the time or repeatedly, or that something is true in general:

- ☐ Nurses look after patients in hospitals.
- ☐ I usually go away at weekends.
- ☐ The earth goes round the sun.
- ☐ The cafe opens at 7.30 in the morning.

Remember:

I work ... but He works ... They teach ... but My sister teaches ...

For spelling (-s or -es), see Appendix 6.

We use do/does to make questions and negative sentences:

do	I/we/you/they	work?	I/we/you/they	don't	work does	he/she/it	drive?	he/she/it	doesn't	drive
		do?			do

- ☐ I come from Canada. Where do you come from?
- ☐ I don't go away very often.
- ☐ What does this word mean? (not What means this word?)
- ☐ Rice doesn't grow in cold climates.

In the following examples, do is also the main verb (do you do / doesn't do etc.):

- ☐ 'What do you do?' 'I work in a shop.'
- ☐ He's always so lazy. He doesn't do anything to help.

We use the present simple to say how often we do things:

- ☐ I get up at 8 o'clock every morning.
- ☐ How often do you go to the dentist?
- ☐ Julie doesn't drink tea very often.
- ☐ Robert usually goes away two or three times a year.

I promise / I apologise etc.

Sometimes we do things by saying something. For example, when you promise to do something, you can say 'I promise ...'; when you suggest something, you can say 'I suggest ...':

- ☐ I promise I won't be late. (not I'm promising)
- ☐ 'What do you suggest I do?' 'I suggest that you ...'

In the same way we say: I apologise ... / I advise ... / I insist ... / I agree ... / I refuse ... etc.

Grammar-Present continuous

Form

I + am + verb(ing)

Present Continuous

© Liv Hambrett

Use it for ...

- * Things happening NOW.
- * Temporary actions.
- * Things that will change.
- * Describing a current action.

Signal
words

- * At the moment
- * Right now
- * Currently

HELPFUL HINTS

REMEMBER

Present Continuous can also be used for the future. We use it for things that we have made definite arrangements to do:

- * 'I am having dinner with my friend tonight.'
- * 'I am playing football with my team this weekend.'

Present continuous (I am doing)

43

Study this example situation:

Sarah is in her car. She is on her way to work.
She is driving to work.

This means: she is driving now, at the time of speaking.
The action is not finished.

Am/is/are + -ing is the present continuous:

I	am	(= I'm)	driving
he/she/it	is	(= he's etc.)	working
we/you/they	are	(= we're etc.)	doing etc.

I am doing something = I'm in the middle of doing it; I've started doing it and I haven't finished:

- ☐ Please don't make so much noise. I'm trying to work. (not I try)
- ☐ 'Where's Mark?' 'He's having a shower.' (not He has a shower)
- ☐ Let's go out now. It isn't raining any more. (not It doesn't rain)
- ☐ (at a party) Hi, Jane. Are you enjoying the party? (not Do you enjoy)
- ☐ What's all that noise? What's going on? (= What's happening?)

Sometimes the action is not happening at the time of speaking. For example:

Steve is talking to a friend on the phone. He says:

I'm reading a really good book at the moment.
It's about a man who ...

Steve is not reading the book at the time of speaking.
He means that he has started it, but has not finished it yet.
He is in the middle of reading it.

Some more examples:

- ☐ Kate wants to work in Italy, so she's learning Italian. (but perhaps she isn't learning Italian at the time of speaking)
- ☐ Some friends of mine are building their own house. They hope to finish it next summer.

You can use the present continuous with today / this week / this year etc. (periods around now):

- ☐ A: You're working hard today. (not You work hard today)
B: Yes, I have a lot to do.
- ☐ The company I work for isn't doing so well this year.

We use the present continuous when we talk about changes happening around now, especially with these verbs:

get change become increase rise fall grow improve begin start

- ☐ Is your English getting better? (not Does your English get better)
- ☐ The population of the world is increasing very fast. (not increases)
- ☐ At first I didn't like my job, but I'm beginning to enjoy it now. (not I begin)

Comparing present simple and present continuous

46

Present continuous and present simple 1 (I am doing and I do)

Compare:

Present continuous (I am doing)

We use the continuous for things happening at or around the time of speaking.
The action is not complete.

- ☐ The water is boiling. Can you turn it off?
- ☐ Listen to those people. What language are they speaking?

Present simple (I do)

We use the simple for things in general or things that happen repeatedly.

- ☐ Water boils at 100 degrees Celsius.
- ☐ Excuse me, do you speak English?

- ☐ The water is boiling. Can you turn it off?
- ☐ Listen to those people. What language are they speaking?
- ☐ Let's go out. It isn't raining now.
- ☐ 'I'm busy.' 'What are you doing?'
- ☐ I'm getting hungry. Let's go and eat.
- ☐ Kate wants to work in Italy, so she's learning Italian.
- ☐ The population of the world is increasing very fast.

We use the continuous for temporary situations:

- ☐ I'm living with some friends until I find a place of my own.
- ☐ A: You're working hard today.
B: Yes, I have a lot to do.

- ☐ Water boils at 100 degrees Celsius.
- ☐ Excuse me, do you speak English?
- ☐ It doesn't rain very much in summer.
- ☐ What do you usually do at weekends?
- ☐ I always get hungry in the afternoon.
- ☐ Most people learn to swim when they are children.
- ☐ Every day the population of the world increases by about 200,000 people.

We use the simple for permanent situations:

- ☐ My parents live in London. They have lived there all their lives.
- ☐ Joe isn't lazy. He works hard most of the time.

I always do and I'm always doing

I always do (something) = I do it every time:

- ☐ I always go to work by car. (not I'm always going)

'I'm always doing something' has a different meaning. For example:

I'm always losing things = I lose things very often, perhaps too often, or more often than normal.

More examples:

- ☐ You're always playing computer games. You should do something more active. (= You play computer games too often)
- ☐ Tim is never satisfied. He's always complaining. (= He complains too much)

Present continuous and present simple 2

(I am doing and I do)

We use continuous forms for actions and happenings that have started but not finished (they are eating / it is raining etc.). Some verbs (for example, know and like) are not normally used in this way. We don't say 'I am knowing' or 'they are liking'; we say 'I know', 'they like'.

The following verbs are not normally used in the present continuous:

like	want	need	prefer
know	realise	suppose	mean	understand	believe	remember belong	fit	contain	consist	seem

- ☐ I'm hungry. I want something to eat. (not I'm wanting)
- ☐ Do you understand what I mean?
- ☐ Anna doesn't seem very happy at the moment.

Think

When think means 'believe' or 'have an opinion', we do not use the continuous:

- ☐ I think Mary is Canadian, but I'm not sure. (not I'm thinking)
- ☐ What do you think of my plan? (= What is your opinion?)

When think means 'consider', the continuous is possible:

- ☐ I'm thinking about what happened. I often think about it.
- ☐ Nicky is thinking of giving up her job. (= she is considering it)

See hear smell taste

We normally use the present simple (not continuous) with these verbs:

- ☐ Do you see that man over there? (not Are you seeing)
- ☐ This room smells. Let's open a window.

We often use can + see/hear/smell/taste:

- ☐ I can hear a strange noise. Can you hear it?

Look feel

You can use the present simple or continuous to say how somebody looks or feels now:

- ☐ You look well today. or You're looking well today.
- ☐ How do you feel now? or How are you feeling now?

but

- ☐ I usually feel tired in the morning. (not I'm usually feeling)

He is selfish and He is being selfish

He's being = He's behaving / He's acting. Compare:

- ☐ I can't understand why he's being so selfish. He isn't usually like that.
(being selfish = behaving selfishly at the moment)
- ☐ He never thinks about other people. He is very selfish. (not He is being)
(= He is selfish generally, not only at the moment)

We use am/is/are being to say how somebody is behaving. It is not usually possible in other sentences:

- ☐ It's hot today. (not It is being hot)
- ☐ Sarah is very tired. (not is being tired)
